

HDFS 3390 – Media Paper Assignment
One page, worth 5 points
Due Tuesday, Sept. 10, 2019

Find a media article describing some type of research related to human development or family studies. The article must describe a research study; it can't just describe some phenomenon.

- Briefly summarize study.
- Why is it of interest to you?
- What questions are you left with after reading the story?
- Can you think of other ways the study could have been done?
- Staple copy of article to your paper or copy and paste the link (<http://www.....>).

Getting a story from the World Wide Web is encouraged, but you can use a regular magazine or newspaper if you want. Useful web links:
